SEMINA LIFE – MADE FOR US

The awning for our most wonderful moments on the patio

We love undisturbed time together as a couple – especially outdoors on our patio. Which is why we chose Semina Life with Valance Plus. The vertical privacy and sun protection extends downwards at the press of a button – and we are already totally alone. The atmospheric mood is then complete with the warm white LED lighting that can be dimmed infinitely and the Tempura heating system.

We are family people and there are quite a few of us. We love gathering on the patio. Everyone wants to be well protected there. Which is where the large solid Semina Life awning comes in perfectly. We are mainly impressed by the large area of shade and high quality standards. Cushioned feed rollers allow it be closed quietly, the weinor LongLife arm is extremely resilient and gives the fabric optimum performance and appearance. What more could we want?
